

Map To Clonabreany House

If you are parked at the Crossakiel Village Handball Alley on the right facing West, pull off from the handball Alley and drive down the hill away from the village.

As you leave the village, you will come across a staggered crossroads, continue straight ahead, heading West.

Continue straight down this road for about one kilometre. The road goes up and then down towards another junction.

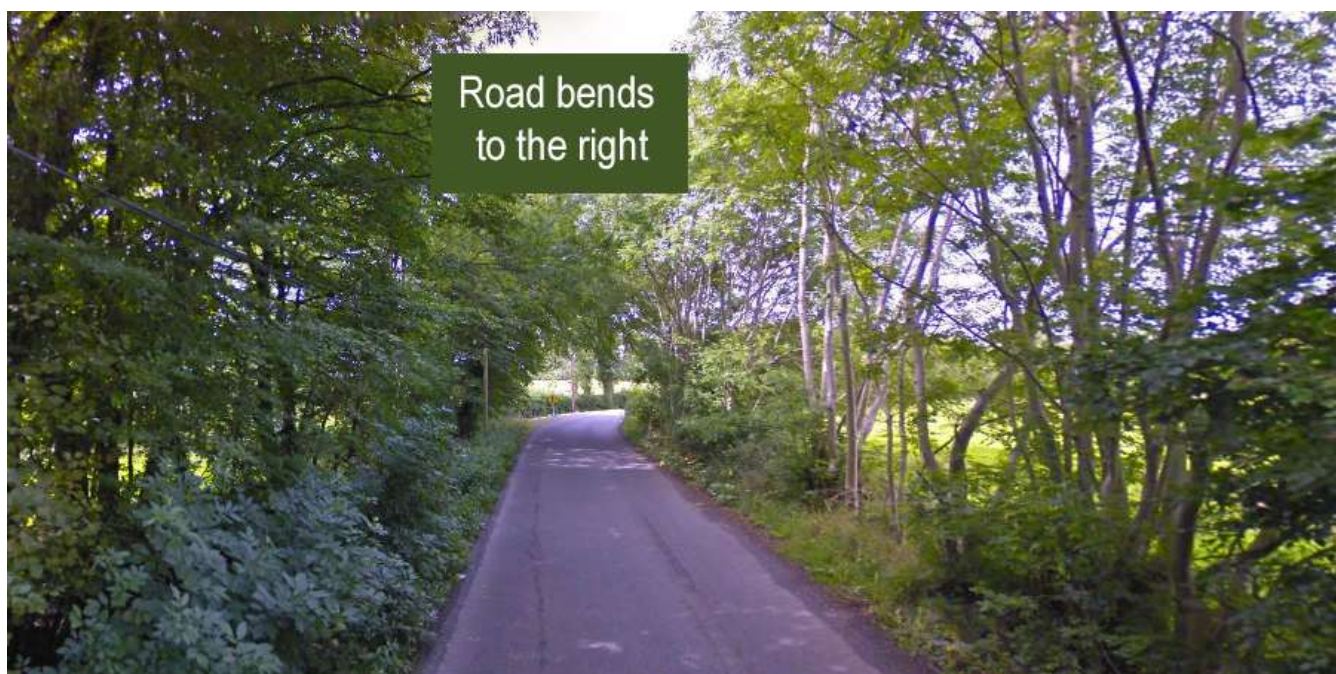

Turn right at the junction and head towards Ardglasson.

Drive down this road for around one kilometre until you enter Ardglasson village. Please drive slowly.

Follow the narrow road for a couple of kilometres going straight. You will see houses on both sides of the road along the way. The road will then bend to the right.

The turn for Clonabreany House is a few hundred metres ahead. There is a sign posted on the left side of the road saying “Clonabreany House” and an arrow telling you to turn right.

Stay on this narrow round until you come to the entrance of Clonabreany House.

Well done! You have found Clonabransy House.
